BEHAVIORAL HEALTH

MENTAL HEALTH FIRST AID (ADULT)

Course Content:
This 8-hour course is an interactive certification training program designed to increase mental health literacy. MHFA is the initial help given to a person showing symptoms of mental illness or a mental health crisis (severe depression, psychosis, panic attacks, suicidal thoughts and behaviors, etc.) until appropriate professional and other help, including peer and family support, can be engaged. This course is highly recommended for First Responders.

Course Goals:
After successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:
- Recognize the prevalence of mental illness in the US and the emotional and economic costs
- List the potential warning signs and risk factors for depression, anxiety disorders, trauma, psychotic disorders, and substance abuse disorders
- Implement a five-step plan to help an individual in crisis connect to professional care
- Recommend the appropriate professional, peer, social, and self-help resources available to help someone with a mental health problem

DEVELOPING THE ANNUAL FUND PROGRAM

Course Content:
This three-hour course takes a “hands-on” approach to learning in order to provide information and ideas on how to apply fundraising basics to create a blueprint for success. As annual giving is considered the essential foundation upon which to build, participants will learn how to develop an effective annual fund program. The underlying planning process, complete with goal setting and the components of a good plan, will be explored, as well as the basics of gift giving. Participants will conduct on-line, real time research for collecting available data.

Course Goals:
After successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:
- Describe and identify the points to develop an effective annual fund program
- Analyze the components of a good plan and how to incorporate it into your annual fund
- Determine which strategies to use and when to use them
- Utilize the annual fund to support a total development program
- Assess the cost efficiency and effectiveness of their annual fund
- Conduct on-line research to collect data

Cost: $55

GRANT WRITER’S SERIES

FUNDAMENTALS OF GRANT SEEKING

Course Content:
This three-hour class provides an introduction to the process, language, proposal formats, and writing styles, as well as the customs and courtesies of grant seeking for nonprofit organizations. Participants will learn how to establish objectives, goals, project timelines, and more. Discussion will also include a review of the main steps in the grant seeking process and suggestions on successful ways to approach foundations, organizations, and individuals for funding.

Although previous knowledge of grant writing is not required, participants may find the learning experience more valuable if they have some grant writing or nonprofit experiences.

Course Goals:
After successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Understand the societal and philanthropic context for grant seeking
- Understand who is eligible for grants (grant seekers) and what entities offer grants (grant makers).
- List the main steps in the grant seeking process.
- Identify the proposal formats and documents that are typically prepared by grant writers
- Explain the basic parts of a grant proposal and the information contained in each section
- Identify the style choices and flexibility required to write grant proposals and fundraising documents, as well as writing aids that must be used by the grant writers.
- Appreciate the expertise, resources, and role of program officers and foundation staff, as well as the relationship-building process between grant seekers and grant makers.
- Understand the post-award responsibilities of grant stewardship

Cost: $60

PREPARING COMMON GRANT PROPOSALS

Course Content:
This three-hour class provides an introduction to writing and preparing common grants. Writing sessions will take participants through the step-by-step process of drafting a Common Grant Proposal and will be held virtually to facilitate real-time, hands-on learning. Some points that will be covered in class are:

- Learning and following guidelines of the Common Grant Application
- Adequate budget objectives
- Effective methods of preparation and submission

Course Goals:
After successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Review and follow guidelines for the Common Grant Application
- Assemble organizational information and data required to prepare a common grant
- Quickly outline, format, and insert sections of the proposal
- Write logical and persuasive statements linking parts of the proposal
- Prepare an adequate budget
- Describe and discuss effective and acceptable methods of preparing, submitting, and tracking a template grant proposal to multiple funders

GRANT WRITING LAB

Course Content

During this three-hour workshop, participants will receive knowledge and tools to begin preparing their own grants. Because many participants have not done grant writing before, they will have questions as they get under way, which may cause delays in submitting a grant proposal. These labs will provide the next step in the process.

Participants will bring an actual grant proposal they are working on (in draft format) to class. The instructor and others in the class will critique them, assist in editing and provide helpful feedback. Participants will then use the information learned to incorporate the feedback to revise and polish their proposal. The instructor and class will provide additional critique, feedback, and suggestions for editing their proposal that will enable participants to finalize their proposals and get ready for submission.

Completion of the “Fundamentals of Grant Seeking” Class or previous grant writing experience is required.

Course Goals:

After successful completion of this course, participants will be able to:

- Formulate thoughts of ideas for proposal
- Examine proper vocabulary to write a more effective proposal
- Search online for various samples and ideas to extrapolate and add to their needs
- Incorporate feedback for a more polished proposal
- Finalize and develop an actual grant proposal they could use for their organization

REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT

Professional and Staff Development Programs for the Human Services Sector

COST
At CCAC, we are very aware of the budget constraints that many organizations are experiencing. With this in mind, we remain committed to keeping cost of classes, workshops and customized trainings affordable. We look forward to working with you to offer programs to meet your needs for a nominal cost.

The cost of our classes varies. All prices are listed with the course descriptions.

Pre-registration is required for all training programs.

PAYMENT OPTIONS
Check or money order – Participants may register for any class offered by submitting CCAC’s Non-Credit Registration Form with payment. A copy of the form may also be used. Registration forms MUST be signed and dated. Please remember to include your birth date on the form (or your CCAC student ID, if known).

If you mail in your registration, please include a check or money order to cover the cost of the classes you plan to attend. Make your check or money order payable to CCAC. DO NOT send cash through the mail.

Completed forms and payment may be submitted by mail to:

Christine Majewski, Training Coordinator
CCAC–Allegheny Campus
808 Ridge Avenue--Byers 203
Pittsburgh, PA 15212-6097

Credit card – Because CCAC cares about your privacy, we cannot process credit card information by mail. You may pay by credit card using one of the following registration methods:

• By phone -- Call CCAC’s non-credit registration line at 412-788-7546.

• Online -- Go to CCAC’s online store at http://shopcommunityed.ccac.edu/. Choose “Human Services” from the topic list on the left. Then choose the courses you are registering for and add them to your shopping cart. Follow the prompts to complete the registration process.
REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT

Third party billing – Your agency or organization can make arrangements to be invoiced for classes taken through CCAC’s Human Services training program. Your employer may initiate this registration and invoicing process by completing and submitting CCAC form “Employer/Agency Payment of Tuition/Expense Agreement.” This form is available on CCAC’s website at www.ccac.edu. Keyword search “expense agreement” and click on the search result “download the Third Party Contract Form.”

Instructions for completing the “Expense Agreement” form for third party billing:

- In the top section of the form, fill in organization name, address and contact information.
- In the second section, you are agreeing to pay 100% of:
  - √ Tuition
  - √ Fall term
  - √ Non-Credit Courses Only (Provide specific course titles and course numbers.)
- In the bottom section, provide a list of employee names and dates of birth. Use birthdates instead of Social Security numbers.
- Sign and date the bottom of the form.
- Scan and email the “Expense Agreement” form and completed registration forms for each student to Christine Majewski at cmajewski@ccac.edu
- Please note: New “Expense Agreement” forms must be completed and submitted every semester.

IMPORTANT: If you are registered for a class but are unable to attend, you must notify CCAC to cancel/withdraw from the class by the end of the last business day before the class starts. To withdraw from a class, call CCAC at 412-237-6587 and provide your name, the course title, date and time. Your organization will be billed for “no show” participants who do not cancel with CCAC in advance.

REFUND POLICY
In order to receive a refund for any fees paid in advance, participants who wish to withdraw from a class must do so by the end of the last business day before the class starts. To withdraw from a class, call CCAC at 412-237-6587 and provide your name, the course title, date and time. Please allow three to four weeks for processing of your refund. Refunds will be in the form that the original payment was made.

QUESTIONS

For questions and information regarding training, please call 412.237.6587.
CERTIFICATES
Upon completion of every course, participants will receive a Certificate of Completion via email indicating the title of the training program, the date(s) and number of training hours. It will be the participant’s responsibility to provide the certificates to their respective employers.

CLASS ATTENDANCE
All participants should plan to arrive on time to in-person classes or log in on time for remote classes. Participants should also plan to stay for the duration of the class in order to receive full credit for their participation in the class.

NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY
The college does not discriminate based upon race, color, religion, national origin, ancestry or place of birth, sex, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, disability, marital status, familial status, veteran status, age or use of a guide or support animal because of blindness, deafness or physical disability of any individual. Questions may be addressed to diversity@ccac.edu.

Individuals with disabilities who are requesting accommodations should contact the Supportive Services for Participants with Disabilities office at 412.469.6215. This publication is available in alternate formats; contact 412.469.6215.

TRAINING SITE
Remote classes will be conducted via Zoom. Participants who are registered for a class will receive an email from Christine Majewski a few days prior to the class inviting them to join a zoom meeting. Depending on technology available to them, participants may participate with video and audio capabilities or by telephone with audio only.
